

Events organized in 2017

- Roundtable on “Involving the youth in the electoral process”
- Seminar on “In order to have peace, we have to make the necessary preparations”
- Participation in the Roundtable on “Legal and spiritual liberation of the Roma”
- National phase of the interdisciplinary Contest on “History and society in virtual dimension”
- Seminar on “Role of national human rights institutions for the promotion and protection of the rights of the child”
- Seminar on “France – Romania. Prospects regarding the European social policy and the policies for the protection of children and family”
- Conference on “Designing effective tools for the promotion and protection of social and economic rights”
- Participation as special guest in the Seminar for parents and future parents entitled “Responsible Parents’ School”
- Seminar suggestively entitled “The Psychology Class”, which took place under the motto “I was a child, I am a parent, I get involved, I am listening, I understand and I love”
- Seminar entitled “The right to education”, organized as part of series of six events and having as target public the Roma community in the Giulești-Sârbi District
- Event devoted to the United Nations Day, organized in three sections:
  - Structure of the United Nations Organization and its worldwide importance;
  - Charter of the United Nations: universal and regional instruments;
  - Romanian organizations under the aegis of the United Nations.